Last Weeks Program – April 12th – LTC Craig (Jim) Flowers, Director of Cadet Activities, presented some of the many things That his office does for "The Corps". They are the folks that operate the Ike Hall Theatre, the Ike Hall Café, the Cadet Bookstore, the Cadet Store, the Grant Hall Eatery, the First Class Club and many other things on post. All of their profits are returned to the Corps of Cadets to fund their clubs and activities. Ike Hall is the second largest theatre on the east coast! Great Job!
Curt Brewer passed on further information regarding the death of Doris Hiester, the wife of our club founder Ret. B.G Dave Hiester AOG class of '36 (deceased). on March 28th. Her graveside memorial service will be at West Point on May 7th at 1000 hrs. Memorials may be made to:Class of 1936 Distinguished Organ Recital Series, C/O Assoc. of Graduates, West Point, NY
Worth repeating again! Jerry Sheehan said that the group study exchange is at the Poughkeepsie Grand Hotel on March 24th, (for 1 day): May12th is the Blooming Grove/Washingtonville Dinner dance; Phil Brillante : Safety Tip – Weather is still wild, so use extreme caution when traveling. There could be rain, snow and windy conditions prevailing!
