Last Weeks Meeting - COL Dan Bruno Addressed RCI (Residential Communities Initiative) family housing, and how West Point fares in the future development of family housing . The housing goal objective is to keep the housing units full. There are currently 995 Current military families at West Point, and other area's are being explored to both build new ones and renovate existing units with amenities such as a community center, playgrounds, etc. The homes would be superior, and land leased for 50 years with a 25 yr. option. (A most informative program!)

Pres. Dave Monroe & John McLellan announced that all tickets have been sold for the dinner/theatre on April 5th. Shirley Bonsell has tickets for the Met packages. Bobbie Fallon requested that the Gazebo in the Village be reserved West Point graduation day so it isn't taken over by protestors!

Jerry Sheehan gave a moving update on the Military forces in Iraq, etc. who died or are badly wounded & his efforts to send funds to the families of local soldier's, marines, etc. Three checks for $500.00 each have been distributed. (Good job, Jerry!)

Pres. Dave also said that the Dictionary project needs volunteers April 3rd to paste labels following the meeting!

"If you're able, Mabel, please slip me a label."

Jerry's Pushcart – Jerry Says:
"Shoits & jackets are for sale,
So buy one now before they grow stale!"
