Last Weeks Meeting

LTC Ahn from Korea, Korean Armed Forces Medical Command.

LTC Ahn of the South Korean Army has a long an impressive resume'. Among other items he is a graduate of the U.S. Army in San Antonio, Texas. He is a teacher, engineer, scientist, dermatologist, and member of the South Korean Military and Medial system. He discussed the various aspects of the South Korean system of medical & military inter-relationships. This was a well presented, informative program.

Steve Scott discussed : Scholarships, RYLA, & upcoming District Training in May with Knut Johnson. Harold Spaeth said the Dictionary project is moving along nicely.

Phil Brillante's safety tip.

"Watch out for that turning vehicle!"

Phil preceded his tip with these words after observing a vehicle making an extraordinary turn, creating a hazard to both vehicles and pedestrians using the roadway. His message was: "Be alert at all times for the unexpected, whether as a driver or pedestrian. ("Nuff said!")

Jerry's Pushcart - Jerry says: ”
“So you think you've got troubles
with all this ice and rain;
Try selling a summer shoit,
It'll surely tax your brain!”
