Last Week' Meeting

President John introduced Laurie Tortel, a new member of the Town of Highlands Town Council, who discussed her idea's on the 'greening' of the community. This would include: searching for grant monies, utilizing solar energy, creating a "green trail", alternative transportation, community bike racks, working with local utilities and many other innovations. Laurie seems like a very energetic person and hopefully she will have much success in her endeavors.

Jim Thomson received his third posting at the meeting and is scheduled to be sworn in at this meeting.

President John again thanked all who contributed their time & effort into the dictionary project. Hip, hip, hooray!

Pres. John mentioned the upcoming bus trip to the Philadelphia Flower show on March 3rd. John's wife Angela is working with Shirley Bonsell on this event. See Shirley for tickets now.

Phil Brillante's Safety Tip! (Phil subbed for Katherine.) Beware of gridlocked roads! With this extremely cold, icy weather, allow plenty of stopping room when driving.

Memorial – To Edgar Allan Poe, who's 200th birthday was this past week, January 18th. In the 1830s, Poe served for 7 months as a Cadet at the U.S.M.A. before being dismissed. It's said that before leaving the area, he resided for a short time in a rooming house (the house is still standing) in what became Highland Falls:
"Does he linger, does he last there?
Is his shadow from the past there?"
Perhaps "Benny Havens" would be a likelier location to look - if that were still standing....
