Last Weeks Program – July 5th
Ist Lt. Gregory J. Stevens, recipient of the Rotary Ambassadorial Scholarship, outlined his 'Bio of Life' in which he described his West Point experience, including the importance of service, and leadership development. He spent time in Africa studying Medical Outreach and studied in Cambridge, both philosophy and public health. Great bio!
Installation Ceremony – (June 28th at Thaver Hotel). Congrat's to new President Dave Monroe and the officers and Board members who will lead us into the 2007-2008 Rotary year! Thanks also to Jerry Sheehan & staff for the fruitful year gone bye!

Congrat's to Garrison Commander COL Brian Crawford. He was honored at Trophy Point on Tues., July 10th during the change of Command Ceremony. I hope West Point misses him almost as much as we in Rotary will! Best of luck in your future endeavors!
Roy Spells again reminded the membership that the District will be coming out with a project on the means to provide for disasters. “Again, Remember the Winery!” Steve, Dave and Shirley! – (Slurp! Slurp!) Keep September 20th clear for a “Vinyard Affair”.

Phil Brillante's Safety Tip –
With the weather turning great for driving, USE CAUTION! Road surfaces can become Slippery under various conditions. Maintain proper tire pressure while driving.
Chamber of Commerce –The “Arts Festival” is moving along nicely.
