Last week's meeting: Peggy Taylor, Outreach Coordinator USMA Soldier & Family Assist.
Peggy gave a very informative narrative of the “Wounded Warrior Assistance” program which included the “Warriors” and their families. It also included “The wounded Warrior's ethos: I am a warrior in transition. My job is to heal as I transition back to duty or continue serving the nation as a Veteran in my community. This is not a status, but a mission. I will succeed in this mission because I AM A WARRIOR AND I AM ARMY STRONG. (A moving program!)

of the month. (Each month different disciple.)

Katherine Beekman's Safety Tip! – Katherine (Do we call her Kate?) replaces Phil Brillante in this most important safety instruction moment, and a great job she did!
She stressed the necessity of having safety equipment & info available in the event of disasters, such as floods, earthquakes, etc.

Battery operated radios; flashlights, blankets, utility knife, water, food, and emergency information are a necessity. Good job, Kate!

(No pun intended - that comes later.) Holger also added a few good tips, especially the “panic button”!

JULY 4th 5K race. The Masons no longer sponsor this and discussion brought it to our doorstep! (Do I hear all yea's?)

“Oh no!”

Daily Pun:

A group of friars were behind on their belfry payments, so they opened a small florist shop to raise funds. Since everyone liked to buy flowers from the men of God, a rival florist across town thought the competition was unfair. He asked the good fathers to close down, but they would not. He returned and begged them to close down, but they ignored him. The florist then hired “Hugh McTaggart, the roughest, most vicious thug in town to ‘persuade’ them to close. Hugh beat up the friars and trashed their store, saying he'd be back if they didn't close up shop.
Terrified, they did so, thereby proving that “only Hugh can prevent florist friars.”
