Last Weeks Meeting -

Jeanette McMahon gave a most interesting presentation of the Oversight Program, which is designed to prevent sexual assaults at the Academy. New Cadets entering the Academy reveal through questionnaires, that 25% of them have been assaulted before entering West Point. One problem is the difficulty of getting a person who has been assaulted to report it. Changes have occurred where the burden of proof now lies with the alleged perpetrator, and there is a program for Cadets titled Sexual Assault Prevention. This was a well presented, enlightening program.
