Last Week's Program: Klaus Schmidt of the Stihl Company, founded in 1926 in a bad economy and producing chain saws, opened in the international market in the 1960's. He (Klaus) joined the company in 1972 and was assigned to the marketing staff. The company was successful over those years and Klaus has now retired. This was a most interesting program, which described a success story and overshadowed the present economic situation.

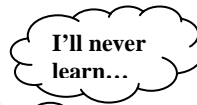

Dues are due! Dave Weyant reminded all that dues for this upcoming quarter are due!

Pres. John McLellan informed all that Jeanette McMahon is working on the 3rd grade. Will report at end of Oct.
