Last Weeks Meeting
COL Jim Knowlton, CEP Wounded Soldier
Program.

“Center for Enhanced Performance”: COL Knowlton gave a briefing on CEP and its work with the USMA and the Army. The “ACEP Mission is to develop the full potential of Warriors and families using a systematic educational and developmental process grounded in cutting edge performance psychology and academic strategies in order to enhance adaptive thinking, mental agility, and self-regulation skills essential to the pursuit of overall personal strength, professional excellence, and the Warrior Ethos across the Army.” COL Knowlton distributed an excellent brochure explaining the program.

Pres. Dave Monroe: said there will be no Presidents meeting until March.

Roy Spells: informed the members that 2 candidates are being sought for the trip to Honduras. Let Bob Broadhurst know if anyone is both interested and qualified to attend.

Harold Spaeth said: The Dictionary project is moving along nicely.

Phil Brillante's Safety tip.

Phil gave us two Safety Tidbits which we should consider: 1- A LED Emergency light that operates with a built in hand crank. (No batteries required). 2- Ear protectors for use when operating snow blowers. (noise, etc.)

Jerry's Pushcart - Jerry says: ”
“We've weeks to go with rain & snow,
And the shoit business is bad,
