Last Weeks Meeting

Bob Pityo, District Gov., Coordinator of the Rotary Dictionary project, gave a very informative description of this project, from its inception in Myrtle Beach, S.C. to New Jersey, where the program participation is nearly 100%. It is known as "The gift of knowledge". The program is GROWING! Incidentally, Bob Pityo is an old compatriot of our own honored member, Harold Spaeth!

Phil Brillante's Safety Tip – Once again Phil commented on the dark, slippery roads in the area. Be on Guard everywhere! Fallen leaves make the roads treacherous. Also, with temperatures falling, beware of "black ice". Daylight Savings is in effect and our clocks have fallen back one hour, which means DARKER ROADS. Drive with extreme caution.
